

infoShare conference & Startup Zone 2016 – the biggest tech & startup event in CEE

Over 5,000 participants, around 100 international speakers, 20,000 Euro for the Startup Contest winner, numerous workshops – don't miss infoShare 2016!

GDANSK, POLAND, May 18, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For the 10th time technology industry and business will meet in Gdansk, Poland during infoShare 2016. – From the 18th-20th of May we will hold lectures, workshops and panel discussions on five stages: Inspire, Tech, Startup, Workshops and Leaders. Every day we put new names on the list like Jeff Szczepanski the COO of Stack Overflow or Anthony le Roux the General Manager for Uber in Eastern Europe. We will talk about technology, entrepreneurship and startups. It's the best place to get access to top innovative projects from the CEE startup community – says Grzegorz Borowski, infoShare Foundation's CEO.

The important part of infoShare is Startup Zone organized by the infoShare Foundation and Gdańsk Business Incubator STARTER with the famous Startup Contest which attracted 160 young companies from Europe only in 2015. – Here startups establish business contacts, gain funding and listen to the best experts – says Małgorzata Jasnoch, STARTER's CEO.

During the Startup Contest

entrepreneurs will compete to get the main prize – 20K euro and even 1 million euro in investments. An international jury will judge their pitches presented at the infoShare main stage in front of 5 thousand people. The jury includes: Jon von Tetzchner (the creator of Vivaldi and Opera web browsers), Marc Wesselink (Startupbootcamp), Pavel (Pasha) Bogdanov (Almaz Capital), Tomasz Swieboda (Inovo) and Paweł Adamowicz (the Mayor of the City of Gdansk).

Startups will also meet with investors and experts during speed dating. This is the unique chance to present innovative projects to representatives of top European funds. What is more, top speakers will inspire participants on the Startup Stage, for example: Joerg Rheinboldt – the CEO of Axel Springer Plug and Play who will talk about early stage startups or Valérie Kinoo – the founder and director of Coworking Les Galeries – a unique coworking and art space. She will speak about the significance of coworking spaces for developing startups.

There are 4 reasons why you can't miss Startup Zone:

Startup Contest – Get a chance to pitch on the Main Stage and win 20,000 Euro in cash plus up to 1,000,000 Euro in possible investments. Grab business contacts, money and fame!

Startup EXPO – Show your project to thousands of potential clients and business partners.
