

PharmaBoardroom Releases The Netherlands Pharmaceuticals Report

Pharmaboardroom releases its new 62 page Netherlands Healthcare and Life Sciences Report 2016.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, April 11, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pharmaboardroom releases its new 62 page Netherlands Healthcare and Life Sciences Report 2016.

This report offers companies, investors, policymakers, and stakeholders crucial insight into a country at the global forefront of healthcare, pharmaceutical and biotechnological innovation

The report features an exclusive in-depth interview with Europe's longest-standing Minister of Health, Edith Schippers, as well as with leading figures from both public institutions and private companies. Also included are up-to-date facts and figures on The Netherlands' healthcare and pharma sectors.

This report is an authoritative assessment of one of the Dutch healthcare and pharma markets. The Netherlands is leading the way globally in:

Sustainable and efficient healthcare

“

The private sector is also of utmost importance to ensure innovation, cost-effectiveness, and flexibility.

Edith Schippers, Minister of Health

experimental market access models.

Biotechnology

The Dutch government has championed increasing transparency, empowering the patient, developing home care, modernizing hospital IT, and fostering EU-wide collaboration to further boost the Dutch healthcare system's reputation as one of the best in the world.

Public-Private Collaborations

Local affiliates are firmly committed to collaboration with regulators while the industry itself is locally implementing

The Dutch biotech scene is booming both in terms of Nasdaq IPOs and in prestigious partnerships with big pharma MNCs. This propels the local value chain and strengthens the Netherlands' innovative reputation.

Innovation

The density of the Netherlands' life sciences community is helping to bring together start-ups, MNCs, service providers, and academic institutions. The pharmaceutical, digital, and medtech worlds are colliding in a variety of specialized clusters; propelling innovative ideas and practices.

The Netherlands Healthcare and Life Sciences Report 2016 includes an in-depth cover story, "Innovation with Collaboration" which covers:

Healthcare priorities for the Dutch presidency of the EU

Cost-containment

Patient-centricity

Process Innovation

Service Providers

Interviews

The report also includes interviews with:

Edith Schippers, Minister of Health

Yvonne van Rooy, Dutch Hospital Association (NVZ)

Peter Schoevers, Julius Clinical

Ad Schuurman, National Health Care Institute

Onno van de Stolpe, Galapagos

Anna van Poucke, KPMG Healthcare

Hans Hofstraat, Philips Research

Bart Vanhauwere, Roche Netherlands

Quotes

"The private sector is also of utmost importance to ensure innovation, cost-effectiveness, and flexibility." Edith Schippers, Minister of Health

"Patient education will become an important area of activity for all healthcare stakeholders, in order for the patient to fulfil his role as a true partner to the care process" Yvonne van Rooy, Dutch Hospital Association (NVZ)

"An organization that could ally the academic strength and credibility of an ARO with the operational capabilities of a CRO would have a very promising potential" Peter Schoevers, Julius Clinical

"From a long-term perspective, a multiple-EU states approach is the best guarantee to improving patient access" Ad Schuurman, National Health Care Institute

"We are not there yet, but in ten years time we could be an independent specialty pharma company. That's very much the objective" Onno van de Stolpe, Galapagos

Michael Comi

Focus Reports

+44 1707 828 754
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases.

© 1995-2016 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.