CHARLOTTE, NC, USA, April 18, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Carolina Golf Cars is proud to once again do its part in donating to The Carolinas' Kickin' It Challenge on Mother's Day weekend. The 'Kickin' It Challenge' is now in its third year as it continues to raise money for the fight against breast cancer. Carolina Golf Cars has made a generous donation to the three-day event, which will take place in two locations on Mother's Day weekend.

The 'Kickin' It Challenge' is one of the many charitable events and organizations Carolina Golf Cars has become involved with in the community. Carolina Golf Cars has also sponsored local charities, including the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Holy Angels, Wounded Warriors and Special Olympics.

Charity is very important at Carolina Golf Cars as it thrives on reaching out to the local community.

"At Carolina Golf Cars, we are continually looking for new ways to enrich the lives of the people in our community," said owner Brian Babcock. "It is important that we remember all the important charities and people who are in need. That is why we place a strong emphasis on being more than just a business, but an organization that gives back to the great people of the Carolinas."

Carolina Golf Cars has also sponsored other local organizations, such as the American Heart Association, Shriners' Circus, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, American Cancer Society, Carousel Thanksgiving Parade and local Christmas Parades.

Education remains very important to Carolina Golf Cars as there has been donations and sponsorships made to local colleges, including UNCC, Winthrop College and Wofford College

Carolina Golf Car's latest charity work will take place on Mother's Day weekend. The 'Kickin' It Challenge' will start on Friday, May 6th with a kickoff party at The Dairy Barn in Fort Mill, SC from 7:00 p.m. till 11:00 p.m. Matt Harris will emcee the event and all are welcome to attend.

The kickoff will be followed by a two-day soccer tournament on May 7th and 8th at Manchester Meadows located in Rock Hill, SC. The tournament will begin at 9:00 a.m. and will be hosted by Discoveries Soccer Club.

Carolina Golf Cars is proud to be among the local businesses that will be donating to this worthy cause and helping in the fight against breast cancer.
