

Business IS Personal! How Companies Can Take Advantage – Mo Bailey, MCC on CUTV News Radio

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, USA, April 18, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Business IS Personal!® What works in business and in our personal lives today lacks relevancy from the way we were “conditioned” for it in our upbringings.

No worries, Mo Bailey, MCC tells us the how, the why and the way out of our “felt, yet unseen” challenges.

Celebrated for her innovative keynotes, experiential workshops, private, group and organizational coaching, a common philosophy in Bailey’s programs is that “only you have walked in your shoes.” She unearths the best of what is inside an individual or business to pull out what sets them apart and helps them to fortify it internally.

“Businesses and Organizations have blueprints, but people are not business plans,” says Bailey. “We can empower individuals and teams by creating environments that recognize and adhere to this idea, often in transformational ways.”

Bailey is a certified coach/change agent and keynote speaker who works with individuals, businesses and organizations to transform challenging situations into simplified success. She is a master at shifting perspectives that empower change quickly with new life long skill-sets that advance success.

CUTV News Radio will feature Mo Bailey in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on April 19th at 1pm EDT / 10am PDT.
