

Rochester Academy of Music & Arts Students to Perform Concert at Carnegie Hall

Rochester NY music students to perform a solo concert at the famed Manhattan venue

ROCHESTER, NY, USA, April 22, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Saturday September 24, a selection of Rochester music students will perform on the historic Carnegie Hall stage in Manhattan. The performers are attendees of the Rochester Academy of Music & Arts-- Western New York's largest privately-owned music school. The concert, which will run from 7:30 to 9:30 pm, will feature local students from ages 6 to adult.

A Rare Opportunity

Performing at Carnegie Hall is a lifelong goal held by many musicians. According to Academy owner Brannon Hungness, "I am so fortunate to be able to present our students with an opportunity that so many strive for. Everyone from Pavarotti to The Beatles have performed at Carnegie."

This is an experience that our students will remember for a lifetime.

Brannon Hungness

Since opening in 2007, the Rochester Academy of Music & Arts has grown into a major local institution. "We are proud to be able to represent the Rochester arts culture on a world-famous stage," says Hungness. "This is an experience that our students will remember for a lifetime."
