are using Child Safety Locks.

"This is exactly what I needed to keep my newly exploring 10 month old out of the cupboards in the kitchen."

The most important aspect of child safety is adult supervision...while childproofing is...a good way to try to protect your child, nothing can or should replace proper adult supervision.

Company Spokesperson

"These child safety locks have been great! As a mother of a 2 and 3 year old, they are in everything! These are the first locks I have found that are able to keep them out! I have them on kitchen cabinets, bathroom drawers, entertainment center doors, etc and I have so many less messes to clean up."

"These child safety locks came in handy to help keep my one year old son and niece away from any dangerous cleaning products. They have an adhesive on the back that holds the child lock on very securely."

"The most important aspect of child safety is adult supervision and while childproofing your home is definitely a good way to try to protect your child, nothing can or should replace proper adult supervision”, stated Catherine Anderson, Company Spokesperson for Safe-T-Ter-Tots.

The company is dedicated to delivering top quality products that efficiently solve everyday problems for families such as childproofing and pet-proofing a home.
