

Jazz Singer Cara Matthew Releases 'Everybody Hurts' Album, Hits Number One on Chart

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, April 25, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Everybody Hurts, Cara Matthew's long-awaited sophomore album is now available in the United States. It hit the coveted number one spot on iTunes Canada's top jazz music chart upon its release March 22, 2016. The album includes jazz and blues covers of popular songs from artists as diverse as Katy Perry, the BeeGees, and even 80's pop sensation Erasure.

"Making it to number one marks a milestone in my career", says Matthew, who is set to go on tour starting this spring. Inspired by Ray Charles, Norah Jones and even Bonnie Raitt, her CD features electric guitar. It also includes a first for Matthew – an original tune, co-written with her producer, Juno Award-winner Greg Kavanagh. The catchy song is entitled I Never Knew, and oozes

Matthew's sensual persona. True to its title, a nod to the classic R.E.M. song, the album Everybody Hurts is "... about reaching out to people so they don't feel alone. It's about connection," adds Matthew.
