“The event rental business is just exploding, and it seems that people are seeking to create memorable landscapes for their weddings and events. That’s where we come in,”

Robert Smith

Bob Smith, the president of Geranium Street started the company as a part time business supplying artificial flowers to equestrian events. He discovered that there was a high demand for artificial plants and flowers from home and business owners. The company grew quickly and expanded its operations into light manufacturing of custom artificial hedges and plants. The company, last year did almost $1,000,000 in sales.

“I literally got into the artificial plants business by accident,” said Smith, about his success in the artificial plant business. Likewise, he discovered that there is a demand for his products in the event rental marketplace. “The event rental business is just exploding, and it seems that people are seeking to create memorable landscapes for their weddings and events. That’s where we come in,” said Smith.

Evergreen Events is planning on serving the boutique wedding and event market with rustic tables and chairs, artificial hedges, and winery themed accessories. The products will rent for slightly higher than the usual tables and chairs, etc, that you see at most events, but the aesthetic value will be tenfold. Wedding planners and event coordinators are always seeking touches to make weddings and events truly memorable for their clients.

Farm tables and chairs have become popular at weddings and elegant events, and Evergreen Rentals is offering Rustic standard 8' by 40" farm tables, and shorter 6' by 40" tables. They will also have available rustic wood benches and broad back cushioned chairs. For the cocktail hour, Evergreen Events is offering a rustic wooden bar and cocktail tables made from winery barrels.

As a division of Geranium Street USA, Evergreen Events has available the best artificial hedges, artificial trees, and flowers. They have enough 8' by 4' standard artificial boxwood hedges in their inventory to make a complete hedge maze. They also have some truly unique wedding arches.
