

Docudrama CAMERON premieres at Martin's Station

Revolutionary War history of the Carolina and Virginia backcountry

CHEROKEE, N.C., U.S.A., May 5, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Raid at Martin's Station at Wilderness Road State Park (Ewing, Va.) will host screenings of the award-winning docudrama CAMERON, based on the historical narrative A DEMAND OF BLOOD: THE CHEROKEE WAR OF 1776. Filming for CAMERON took place at The Raid in 2015, with many re-enactors appearing in the film.

Each year, hundreds of re-enactors relive Cherokees and colonists colliding in bloodshed. The story of the Cherokee War of 1776 and Alexander Cameron is one of intrigue, propaganda and fire in a revolution that changed the world.
