

Backwater Stills Wants to Put a Barn in Your Living Room

Backwater Stills announces the release of a new collection of photographic art prints featuring Appalachian barns.

RED BOILING SPRINGS, TN, USA, April 28, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Inspired by anyone who has ever dreamt of leaving the chaos of the city behind for the peace and quiet of the rural countryside, The Barn Collection pays homage to the most iconic status symbol of country living: the barn.

While a traditional red a-frame barn features prominently in the collection, Backwater Stills also focuses on a variety of other unique colors and styles. The result is a color palette that ranges from strikingly bold and colorful, to neutrals that will blend with any decor.

All barns have a story to tell, and the barns in this limited run collection are no exception. Each photo print is a conversation piece that comes with its own distinct narrative. Barn lovers will be introduced to traditional barns that provide a splash of color against an otherwise monochrome landscape, rusty metal barns with cows to watch over, and barns with a sense of playfulness. "I try to give the barns a personality, even if I have to embellish a little," says Kristy LeBlanc, the artist behind the Backwater Stills brand.

Prints are available on gallery wrapped canvas, canvas mounted on art board, or archival paper in three sizes: 8x12, 9x13 or 18x24. Each piece will be limited to a total run of 50 prints. Once that threshold has been reached, the piece will be pulled from circulation. Interested parties are encouraged to purchase their favorite prints quickly to ensure that they do not miss out.

The Barn Collection builds on previous collections released by BackwaterStills: The Legacy Collection, and The Black & White Collection. To be notified of future releases, get exclusive sneak peeks, and receive members only discounts, you are invited to sign up for the Backwater VIP List at

About Backwater Stills

Kristy LeBlanc loves living in the country with her husband, two dogs, and 44 chickens but she's not so sure about the ducks. Her closest neighbors are "moo cows" and traffic in town is virtually non-existent. For entertainment she loves to explore gravel roads that horrify her parents - just to see where they lead - and is rarely ever found without her camera. Photography has been a life-long hobby that has recently turned into an entrepreneurial pursuit. The goal of Backwater Stills is to share her love of the countryside with others who feel the same. Backwater Stills has a website: <http://www.BackwaterStills.com> and the owner can be reached at <mailto:Kristy@BackwaterStills.com>.
