Newtown Area Realtor Pays It Forward with

Heroes Home Advantage

May 10, 2016 – Newtown, PA – Heroes Home Advantage proudly announces that Realtor Lee Cavalieri of RE/MAX Properties, Ltd has renewed his commitment to giving back to his local Heroes for a third year in Bucks County.

The real estate rebate program provides rebates, discounts and credits to local Heroes who are purchasing or selling a home. Cavalieri has demonstrated his commitment to helping those who protect and enrich the lives of Bucks County residents. Through the Heroes Home Advantage program, Lee Cavalieri will be offering 25% of his commission to Hero clients.

"My father served during World War II. I am a former teacher and athletic coach. I want to help our military and civilian HEROES in a special way. I ask that you contact me for all of your real estate needs. Thank you." Said Lee Cavalieri, RE/MAX Properties, Ltd.

The Heroes Home Advantage real estate rebate program is available for all members of the military, law enforcement, firefighters, first responders, health care professionals, and teachers. Anyone in those lines of profession is eligible, whether they currently or previously served their country. For more information about Heroes Home Advantage, visit HeroesHomeAdvantage.com or email info@HeroesHomeAdvantage.com.

About Heroes Home Advantage

Heroes Home Advantage was founded in 2011 by Michele Ladd in Rochester NY. Ladd's son Tommy, a United States Marine Corps combat veteran, completed two deployments to Iraq while her second son Tyler served in the United States Navy. Upon the two returning home safely, Michele decided to give back to local heroes and began reaching out to real estate professionals across the country to help her in her plight. Heroes Home Advantage is growing and is currently in 37 states with over 700 Realtors, lenders and vender partners. To date, the organization has helped America's heroes save nearly $4,000,000 in credits, rebates and discounts to say "thank you for your services to our country and communities."
