- MAY 29, 2016/+70 CITIES /4 CONTINENTS
- A project organized by the 100happydays Foundation
- For +200 000 happy people from different countries of the world

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND, USA, May 10, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Worldwide, 29th of May 2016 On May 29th 2016 more than 200 000 people in over 60 countries across the world - from Sri Lanka to USA, from Nigeria to Norway - will go out on the streets and join forces, once again, to make their cities happier by blowing soap bubbles. This year this parade is scaling up, adding more cities and attendees all over the world, having the biggest bubbles you have ever seen and increasing human happiness, solidarity and wellbeing.

With the forecasted reach of this global event close to 200,000 people and thanks to the warm reception and help of their Global Ambassadors, this initiative on 4 continents proves that the search of happiness is the ultimate goal for all people beyond age, gender or racial barriers. This will be the best day for children, youngsters, parents and grandparents all around the world that will inspire thousands of people to have a happier life.

The Global Bubble Parade started in 2015 as a small experiment that grew into a Global event reaching over 100 000 people and taking place in over 60 different cities across 4 continents. It's led by the 100happydays foundation, with the goal of promoting the idea that happiness is in the small things around us, and organized in each country by people and for people. This event can be hosted by anyone and anywhere as it spreads its mission across cultures, races and geographical borders. The event is oriented to build more resilient and diverse communities, to increase awareness about personal well-being and to create positive interactive experience between the city and its inhabitants.

With their worry-free, colorful and dreamy nature, soap bubbles are often recognized as a symbol of happiness and childhood. Participants of the parade are encouraged to put their lives on hold for one Sunday morning and enjoy being children again, playing along with their inner child by blowing soap bubbles.

Join the best bubble blowers and bubble lovers around the world and join a parade you have never seen before. The #bubbleparade hashtag will harness the power of social media to create a global moment dedicated to happiness and appreciating little things in life around the world.
