BALTIMORE, MARYLAND, USA, May 18, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Preakness Stakes 2016 is just around the corner and horse racing fans in the US couldn't be more excited. On 7th May there will be what is known as the first round of the Triple Crown. This is one of the three most important horse racing events in the world and the field is set for a great race. Betting on horse races is a time honored tradition and online betting is the preferred method of betting for most people in the US. If fans are lucky enough to actually be there then they are set, otherwise they can simply go to the Preakness Stakes Online Betting 2016 website and place their bets.

The <http://www.Kentucky-Derby-Online-Betting.com> website is providing a trusted way for people in the US and Canada to bet on the races for the 142nd race. There are two things which separate the website from the competition and provide an advantage for users. The first is the signup bonus. According to the creators of the website, fans should never bet at a place which doesn't offer them a sign-up bonus because they should be getting paid to place their bets. The sign-up bonuses vary according to the location of the user and for the betting book used.

The smart way to bet is through the right book. If fans don't have a race or sports book the chances of them succeeding are almost zero. Horses can't be judged just by their names or by looking at them, proper analysis needs to be done and fans will only be able to find proper analysis in the right sports books. This is why the Preakness Stakes Online Betting 2016 website is offering the users the choice of different books upon which they can bet.

There are a lot of horses to look out for this year. The simplest way to look at the standings of the horses so far, but standings aren't everything. Will Baffert be going for the triple again with Mor Spirit? The horse hasn't really performed in a way that suggests that it will win the derby and if it rains the chances of Mor Spirit winning get even lower, but it still isn't a horse to completely write off. Gun Runner and Nyquist are likely contenders. The betting world is abuzz with different players looking at different ways of predicting the race results.
