

9Gauge Partners Joins NetSuite Systems Integrator Partner Program

Austin Financial Management Advisory Firm Launches Systems Integration Practice with NetSuite

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, May 19, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 9Gauge Partners, a leading financial and advisory services firm based in Austin, Texas, today announced that it has joined the NetSuite Systems Integrators Partner Program. 9Gauge plans to bring NetSuite cloud ERP to businesses spanning a number of industries including retail, manufacturing, professional services, and nonprofit in the Austin area. The partnership with NetSuite extends the offerings 9Gauge already provides beyond its focus of financial advisory, business intelligence advisory, and transaction advisory services.

“9Gauge helps our clients adjust their business to leverage best practices of our solution, ensure they’re importing a clean environment, and never lose sight of the integration optimizations.”

Global System Integrators*

“Our clients should be able to realize the full benefits of migrating to software solutions such as NetSuite, so this is a natural partnership of technology and know-how that can help our clients implement solutions they need to succeed,” said Brian White, founder and managing partner of 9Gauge

Partners. “I’m thrilled to incorporate the NetSuite solution into our portfolio of services.”

9Gauge’s software integration services help businesses effectively and efficiently migrate to new systems while helping to maximize the benefits realized from such software implementations. Joining the NetSuite Systems Integrators Program allows 9Gauge to address the fast-growing demand among U.S. organizations for a true cloud-based business management suite that encompasses enterprise resource planning (ERP), customer relationship management (CRM), omnichannel commerce, and professional services automation (PSA) capabilities.

“9Gauge helps our clients adjust their business to leverage the best practices of the NetSuite solution, ensure they are importing a clean environment, and never lose sight of the integration and configuration optimizations,” said Doug Kennedy, VP, Global System Integrators at NetSuite. “9Gauge in combination with NetSuite delivers a best-in-class solution coupled with finance and accounting prowess that drives true value for our clients.”

Over the past 6 years, in addition to full service accounting needs, 9Gauge has provided over 170 clients a full range of finance and advisory services. The firm has designed, implemented, and managed budgets, rolling forecasts, and reporting packages for their clients, with a distinct focus on delivering actionable insights and measurable value. Many business leaders look to 9Gauge for their executive dashboard and metrics design needs.

As a NetSuite Systems Integrator partner, 9Gauge will promote, implement and support NetSuite with companies that want to move their mission-critical business processes to the cloud. 9Gauge offers customers a rich set of consultancy services focusing on business management software migration, implementation methodologies, and best practices for gaining maximum value from software systems. 9Gauge also leverages its deep expertise in and knowledge of historical business software solutions to help clients navigate elements of business process optimization and change management to successfully migrate to NetSuite.

“Our team looks at implementations from all sides to help ensure clients are getting the greatest return on investment in the NetSuite platform,” said David Dolmanet, managing director of 9Gauge’s financial advisory services practice. “We’ll be a strategic partner throughout the full implementation and beyond.”

NetSuite Systems Integrator (SI) Partners provide specialized financial and consulting services that can help clients get even more value from their NetSuite software. SI Partners are experts in their field and have a deep and unique understanding of NetSuite solutions, enabling them to help clients use NetSuite to address requirements such as regulatory compliance or process optimization, as well as the requirements of specific industries.

ABOUT 9GAUGE PARTNERS

9Gauge Partners delivers best practices finance and advisory services to provide executives with the business insights they need to make better decisions faster. Consultants are deployed on engagements in teams, rather than as isolated resources. Clients receive the best expertise for each phase of the work needed, driven by a culture of collaboration and accountability among the team members. Unlike traditional consulting services firms that provide a "resource" to execute tasks based on the clients’ guidance, 9Gauge deploys teams of consultants at blended rates that often are less costly than a single resource. This often results in completing the work more efficiently and more quickly, as a result of putting the right skills on each task. 9Gauge goes beyond the approach of "just getting the work done" as prescribed by the client, and delivers recommendations to optimize finance and accounting processes and implement efficiencies where possible. Our continued commitment to excellence in our delivery to clients drives long-term relationships, and continuing to maintain a great work culture enhances our ability to attract and retain great talent.
