

American PetroLog Expands Into Lafayette, LA

With a new office centrally located in the Gulf South, American PetroLog is positioned to serve their customer base in Louisiana and Texas.

LAFAYETTE, LA, USA, May 20, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- American PetroLog, LLC, a Texas based company that focuses on providing logistics services to the petrochemical industry, has announced that they have expanded their corporate footprint by opening a Sales and Operations center in Lafayette, LA. Robert Kellner, Chief Relationship Officer said "Establishing a physical presence in Lafayette, LA, allows our team to more effectively service American PetroLog's commercial and government customers throughout the gulf region, while expanding our customer base." American PetroLog is in a growth mode and the new Lafayette location becomes the fifth location for the company - American PetroLog currently has Sales and Operations Centers in Houston, TX; Asheville, NC; Cincinnati, OH; and Philadelphia, PA. Kellner added "We appreciate the warm welcome we've received in Lafayette and we look to do our part in creating professional jobs in town that is experiencing the impact of the downturn in the crude oil market."

American PetroLog is owned and operated by a diverse team of logistics professional with a proven track record of success in the logistics industry. They are focused on providing safe transportation and world class customer service, while reducing the overall logistics spend of their customers.
