Benj Borseth, the managing director at Aromantic said "Hyaluronic acid has a number of benefits, but it is also used extensively to improve the skin. This product is highly effective at healing wounds, burns and ulcers. It is also effective as a moisturizer and many of our clients use the product in their moisturizer due to it's ability to prevent the signs of aging."

Aromantic has grown exponentially over the years to become the leading choice for hyaluronic acid. The company advised that they have reviewed and refined their suppliers to ensure that their products are of the highest quality. They will not provide their customers with anything that does not meet their own very high quality control standards at any time.
