

Jeff Alexander Secures Leases Worth $3million for Phenix Salon Suites, Littleton, Colorado

Jeff Alexander stands at the head of JA Capital Investments who have just secured a $3million lease for Phenix Salon Suites

LITTLETON, COLORADO, USA, May 23, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Over the last five years, Phenix Salon Suites have been slowly transforming the way beauty professionals market their service. A franchisee has enabled the incredible growth in Littleton CO by using his own revered investment company and expert knowledge to secure another 11,000 square feet totaling $3million in leases. Jeff Alexander, and JA Capital Investments, has a reputation for excellence and for seeking out incredible investment opportunities for clients.

We are thrilled to have completed the first phase of this development. We have been working with our partners to find the perfect placement and we have found two of them here in Littleton.

Jeff Alexander

Phenix Salon Suites offers incredible opportunities to those salon professionals looking to maximize profit from their salon while building a reputation for excellence.

The elite areas focus on elegance, space, longevity, security and opportunity for their client base. Unlike any other salon space, Phenix Salon Suites think ahead and choose their leases based on the benefits to their long-term clients. It's because of this Phenix Salon Suites needed a company who understood the intricate nature of their business and who listened to what they'd like to achieve through investment opportunities. Through his incredible skill for maximizing profit, Jeff Alexander of JA Capital Investments was able to combine two of his entrepreneurial businesses to secure the best deal for this franchise. Jeff used his own company, JA Capital investments to manage the handling of the leases and to obtain a future for the expansion of Phenix Salon Suites in Littleton. His expertise and foresight is to be celebrated as through this ingenious move, he managed to expediate the growth of two of his own companies while providing incredible results for his clients.

This is more than offer square footage or a retail space to forward face the customer, this is about creating a genuine business opportunity for salon owners that allows professionals to create a profit from their investment, alongside their clients.

The two separate locations acquired by Jeff Alexander and JA Capital Investments were signed General Growth Properties and Jefferson Marketplace. Together they total almost 11,000 square feet.

Founded in 2007, and born in Colorado Springs, Phenix Salon Suites subleases suites from their lucrative leases to spa and beauty professionals. Many nail technicians, physiotherapists, masseurs and hairdressers are discovering the benefits of being a part of a larger, infamous brand that gives them a luxury private space while bringing extra clients and raising their own reputation, without needing to invest in extra marketing.

The wealth of services on offer obviously delights the clients while the opportunity removes the risk for many salon start ups and includes a lot of expenses that make managing a salon simple.

Jeff Alexander is obviously pleased about the growth of Phenix Salon Suites and the new multi million-dollar lease acquisition by JA Capital Investments for his company, he says, "We are thrilled to have completed the first phase of this development. We have been working with our partners to find the perfect placement and we have found two of them here in Littleton. Our firm is growing exponentially and we are presently working on securing an additional 25,000 square feet in the greater Denver area."

Jeff Alexander has been a respected entrepreneur and advisor to those seeking profitable investment opportunities since 2001. His steady growth over the years, and the results he has created for his own businesses prompt many in high profile positions to secure his companies services to expand on their own investment portfolios.
