The conference will bring together key decision makers in the industry to discuss modern methods of port security and provide effective learning experiences for all delegates through expert speakers carefully chosen through extensive research, and workshop magnifying the most topical issues. Topics to be discussed in June include terrorism, cyber security, optimising technology use, regulation and case studies featuring some of the busiest ports from across the world. Our diverse range of topics will allow delegates to learn best practices for port security and understand further how other ports are resolving core challenges.

With 15+ ports already in attendance, don't miss out on the opportunity of over 4 hours worth of networking time. Join the Ports of Bremen, Dover, Gothenburg, Helsingborg, Liverpool, Long Beach,

Milford Haven, New Orleans, Rijeka, Rotterdam, Santos, Tilbury, Vienna, Vigo and more. Don't miss the opportunity to participate in the pre-conference workshop. Captain John Dalby, CEO of Marine Risk Management will be hosting an interactive half-day workshop on Tuesday 31st May 2016. Entitled 'Preparing Ports to Mitigate against External Threats' this workshop will provide attendees with an overview of what is currently being done and/or overlooked as well as what needs to be done in order to enhance security.
