

New Durable Portion Control Container Set To Help With Weight Loss Now Available On Amazon

NY, NY, UNITED STATES, May 24, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The new portion control containers have gained worldwide exposure for helping people to lose weight by managing the portion size they eat. The containers are available on Amazon

Amazon, the largest online shopping network is pleased to announce in conjunction with All Green Products that they have added a new product to their shopping platform. The new product listed in the food services equipment section is the new durable portion control container set that helps with weight loss. The product helps people to lead a healthier lifestyle and since being launched has received five star reviews.

Although often overlooked, portion control is a critical part of any successful diet or weight loss program. For anyone wanting to start eating healthier meals, manage portion control, or begin a weight loss program that delivers results, this easy to use portion control container system makes achieving those goals faster and easier.

The portion control container set comes with seven colorful different sized containers with 100% leak proof lids and a professional step-by-step guide for effectively using the containers to prepare and eat healthier meals. By following the easy-to-understand guide created by health industry professionals, and creating meals based on healthy foods in the proper proportions, successful weight loss becomes much simpler. Preparing meals in advance and having them available in easy-to-carry containers that fit in most handbags or totes, healthy meals now can be taken anywhere including to the office, a friend's home, a party, or on a trip.

The 7-piece multi-colored portion containers are made from the highest quality, food safe, FDA approved propylene that is also certified BPA and DEHP safe. Each sturdy container can be used with any type of food. Top shelf dishwasher safe, the containers are easy to clean, microwaveable and freezer safe. Each lid fit securely on the base and will not leak. The stackable containers are also easy to store when not in use.
