

Global Mobile Biometrics Market 2016 Share, Trend, Segmentation and Forecast to 2020

Wiseguyreports.com adds "Mobile Biometrics Market to Grow at a 103.3% CAGR Forecast to 2020".

PUNE, INDIA, May 26, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/
-- About the Mobile Biometrics Market

Data security is a serious concern for government organizations, enterprises, and individuals. Identity badges, numeric keypads, and PINs were the most popular devices used to prevent unauthorized access to sensitive data and assets. Advances in technology led to the introduction of two-factor authentication, which allows access on the basis of hardware devices and numeric codes, but cracking these security codes was easy.

Technavio's analysts forecast the global mobile biometrics market to grow at a CAGR of 103.3% during the period 2016-2020.

Covered in this report

The report covers the present scenario and the growth prospects of the global mobile biometrics market for 2016-2020. To calculate the market size, the report considers the revenue generated from the sale of biometrics solutions such as application software used in mobile devices like smartphones and tablets. The revenues do not include the hardware cost such as cameras and sensors. The revenue generated from after-sales services is also not considered.
