PUNE, INDIA, May 27, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/
-- About the School Furniture Market in the Gulf Cooperation Council

Schools in the GCC region are purchasing furniture as per the needs of teachers and students while primarily focusing on student-oriented classroom setup. The Pre K-12 schools are investing in new and attractive furniture to make the school space lively, comfortable, and engaging for students. Keeping in mind the present day needs of children, schools are cautious while selecting early childhood furniture. Ergonomic designs are preferred as institutions realize its crucial role in a learning environment, which has changed rapidly during the past decade.

Technavio's analysts forecast the school furniture market in GCC to grow at a CAGR of 15.25% during the period 2016-2020.
