

ENTREPRENEUR and his WABOWLS WELCOMED ONTO the SHELVES of the PENNINGTON QUALITY MARKET

Local Business Owner Offered Exceptional Opportunity

PENNINGTON, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, May 27, 2016

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Wally Jacob, the founder of Wabowl, and the Pennington Quality Market, recently celebrated one month of offering his balanced meals to customers.

“When I first came into the Pennington Quality Market with my products, it was my first time pitching Wabowls to a grocery store. I was new to the business and I was nervous,” said Wally Jacob. “But I didn’t feel that way for long. They welcomed me into their family, helped me when I asked for it, and encouraged me to distribute samples as often as I could. It’s a special place where I like to think I feel at just as much at home selling my product as the customers do who are there buying them.”

Balanced Meals To Go

“Over the years we’ve partnered with local entrepreneurs and their products and have enjoyed watching them and their brands blossom into what they are today,” said Charlie Coward, General Manager of the Pennington Quality Market. “A lot of our customers want healthy, tasty, and easy. Wally fills that demand with his All Natural and Vegan Wabowls. He’s a good salesman without being too aggressive. And, just like many of the small business owners who got their start here, he’s part of our family here at the Pennington Quality Market.”
