

'Under His Wings:' Avon Park author in talks of adapting Christian novel to film

Tate author Maxine Johnson to convene with pro-screenwriter to take Christian novel, "Under His Wings," to big screen.

AVON PARK, FLA., UNITED STATES, May 31, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- AVON PARK, Fla. — Author of the compelling Christian novel, "Under His Wings," Maxine Johnson, is set convene with a pro screenwriter discussing the potential of seeing his book adapted to film.

"Under His Wings" is a story of a young woman in the 1880s, living on a ranch in the Hill Country of Texas who battles depression and thoughts of suicide after she experiences the loss of everyone in her family. God has another plan for her as he sends people who lead her to redemption and reconciliation to God through Jesus, the Messiah.

"A truly inspiring write-up of reconciliation and redemption."

Stacy Baker, Acquisitions Editor, Tate Publishing

The book which has received tons of positive feedback from readers has swayed Johnson into creating a second and third installment of the novel, "Raven's Wings" and "On Eagle's Wings."

Excited about her new venture of adapting the novel to film, Maxine shares the inspiration behind the book, stating, "God gave me the story. It was in my head eating away at my brain until one day I finally decided to write it and try to get it out of there. I was teaching senior English at Avon Park high school and didn't have copious amounts of time to write. I began in 2008 and finished the story in 2013. The following two books came much more quickly since I retired in 2014."

"[It is] a truly inspiring write-up of reconciliation and redemption. This book renewed my faith that God is with us during our darkest time." States Stacy Baker, Acquisition's Editor for Tate Publishing. Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book is available through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Maxine was born in San Antonio, Texas and is a Texan through and through even though she has lived many other places in the states and overseas. She and her husband Bob have three grown children and six grandchildren. All of them love to travel. She paints, sings, writes, cans, knits, crochets and sews. Her mother's family came to America in the late 1600s and her father's family immigrated from Sweden and Bohemia in the late 1800s giving her a broad spectrum of family experiences from which to draw. She holds degrees in history, English, and Journalism which give her the skills for research and writing.
