MIAMI, FLORIDA, ESTADOS UNIDOS, February 1, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kalona Bank, a division of HB and Trust Company, launches its new online platform www.kalonabank.com, to serve Hispanic customers across the United States and Latin America.

Kalona Bank (Bank Kalona Hills), a bank in the state of Iowa; since its inception was characterized by offering service to Hispanic workers, who came to the city of Kalona to work in agriculture, mainly Mexican and Central American countries.

In Over time, they expanded their service portfolio and in 2001 was bought by HB and Trust Company.

Newly launched its new online platform with new services, not only to residents but to all foreigners who wish aperture savings accounts in the United States, properly identified and have the home address in another country.

Kalona Bank is part of a special program where they differ government tax incentives to attract savings accounts in other countries and thus encourage the growth of both local and national economy.

They have also opened a call center in the state of Florida just for the Latin American market.
