NORMAN, OKLA., UNITED STATES, May 31, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NORMAN, Okla. – Author Marc Hardage crafts an emotional, poignant, and thought-provoking exposé among book aficionados in his novel, "The Knock."

"The Knock" is a story about how much influence one member of the armed services can have on that person's family, friends, and teammates. The novel talks about dedication, sacrifice, faith and perseverance.

"I started writing the book when my oldest son was going through BUD/S, in San Diego. BUD/S is an acronym for Basic Underwater Demolition/SEAL. It is the beginning of Navy SEAL training. He was in BUD/S class 258. The book was in the making for about 8 months," shares Hardage, when asked about the inspiration behind his book.
