

Everlasting life story by Wisconsin author in practical life guidebook

Author Rose M. Schneider stirs readers as she shares a story of moving on and giving hope in her personal memoir, "Kristin's Book."

FOND DU LAC, WIS., UNITED STATES, June 1, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- FOND DU LAC, Wis. – Author Rose M. Schneider stirs readers as she shares a story of moving on and giving hope in her autobiographical book, "Kristin's Book: A Life And Death Connection."

A story of faith-strengthening, optimism, and yearning, "Kristin's Book: A Life And Death Connection" is an autobiographical story about surviving the loss of a daughter or son, and giving hope in times of backing down.

"My 22 yr. old daughter was killed in a car accident just after college graduation. I, and the others witnessed "miracles" that I wrote down so I wouldn't forget the details in later years. Also, so that my family and friends will know that she existed and had a huge impact on all of us, and most importantly, sharing the good news of forgiveness of Jesus Christ. It has been in the making throughout my daughter's entire 22 years on this earth," shares Schneider when asked about the inspiration behind her book.

"Many of those who have already read 'Kristin's Book' are thankful for renewing belief that they can have an impact on their family's faith life through their own example and for inviting them into pain and triumph in life over death and giving them hope when they felt hopeless," states Trinity Tate-Edgerton, co-owner and Acquisitions Editor of Tate Publishing.

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book is available through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Schneider is currently a realtor with Roberts Homes & Real Estate. She has been serving buyers and sellers for over 20 years in the Fond du Lac area. She and her husband, Dave, owned and operated laundromats for 18 years while Dave worked for a machine tool builder & worked on a Master's Degree. She has never attended college, never planned to write a book and is thankful to God for using her as His instrument to reach out and help others who need a gentle reminder that God is with us always.
