

Ohio author expresses excitement, surprise, and adventure in juvenile fiction

Author Carl Kegerreis inspires young readers a story of enthusiasm, unexpected undertaking, and astonishment in his children's book, "Hunting Elock."

SYLVANIA, OHIO, UNITED STATES, June 1, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SYLVANIA, Ohio – Author Carl Kegerreis inspires young readers as he crafts a story of enthusiasm, unexpected undertaking, and astonishment in his children's book, "Hunting Elock."

A story of excitement, surprise, and adventure, "Hunting Elock" is an inspirational children's book about a boy Tibby and his best friend Starber, a German Shepard, convincing his other friends to join him to prove that his dreams are real.

"All boys and girls have dreams, some bad and some great. What if part of your great dream comes true, but you want the entire dream to be true. Tibby dreamed about Elock and Elock has to be real," says Kegerreis on the inspiration behind the book.

"It is an adventure-packed book for kids that promotes great imagination."
