

Columbus woman talks of redemption by God's grace in memoir

Author Brenda L. Sims shares stirring read for book aficionados in a story of determination in her memoir, "My Shattered Life, Redeemed by God's Grace."

COLUMBUS, OHIO, UNITED STATES, June 3, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- COLUMBUS, Ohio – Author Brenda L. Sims shares a stirring read for book aficionados as she shares a story of resilience and determination in her personal memoir, "My Shattered Life, Redeemed by God's Grace."

"The story of my Shattered Life was borne out of brokenness that began at an early stage of my life. I could not successfully move forward until those broken pieces were mended back together. My early teachings from Sunday School and Bible teachings throughout the years, taught me about God's love and mercy, and reminded me that I could find wholeness in him," Sims shares.

Readers are inspired and encouraged while reading the book. They are able to respond by seeking a closer walk with God."

Andrea Weig, Acquisitions Editor, Tate Publishing

A story of love, mercy, and possibility, "My Shattered Life, Redeemed by God's Grace" is an autobiography where the author shares the brokenness that begins at the early stage of her life, where she found the light through God.

"I was inspired to share my story by the inspiration of God's Holy Spirit. He impressed upon my heart last year to share my story so that others could be ministered to through my testimony of God's love, grace, mercy, and deliverance through tough times. It was about two years in the making," shares Sims when asked about the inspiration behind her book.

"Readers will surely inspire and encourage while reading the book. They will respond by seeking a closer walk with God," states Andrea Weig, Acquisitions Editor for Tate Publishing.

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book is available through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Sims was inspired to write her biographical history to prove to readers that when faced with difficulties in life if they keep their faith, hope, and trust in God, He will make everything work out for their good.

She is a single mom with four grown up children, nine grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. She prays daily that her life will be a great inspiration and influence to not only her family but all those she becomes connected with.
