

Calistoga Concerts in the Park begins June 23

Thursdays at Pioneer Park to highlight 10 live bands and local Calistoga wines

CALISTOGA, CA, UNITED STATES, June 7, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Calistoga's Concerts in the Park is a series of FREE concerts scheduled 6:30-8:30pm every Thursday night beginning June 23 and running through August 25, 2016, thanks to the generous sponsorship of the Calistoga Beverage Company. Along with your best group of friends or extended family, bring your blankets, chairs and picnic dinner to enjoy this favorite Calistoga summer celebration.

Just when you thought the deal couldn't get any better, adult beverages are allowed (for those 21 and over) and select, local wines available for purchase, highlighting a different winery each week. For boxed dinners-to-go, head to Brannan's Grill, Buster's BBQ, Checkers, Evangeline, and Cal Mart. And remember to stop at Susie's for an after-concert drink.

Below is the lineup of musicians and wineries for the Pioneer Park stage in Calistoga, located at 1308 Cedar Street:

JUNE 23: KINGSBOROUGH puts a modern twist on classic-souful rock 'n' roll.
WINERY: Laura Michael Wines.

JUNE 30: ROSETOWN SOUL AND R&B REVUE is a 7 piece "Blues Brothers"-inspired event band complete with black suit and tie, fedoras, and of course dark sunglasses.
WINERY: Heibel Ranch Vineyards.

JULY 7: SWING 7 plays all types of music including: Swing, Jazz, Latin, and R&B.
