

New Website Puts Plumbing and HVAC Service Requests Online

All Pro Services launching all new website; improved online interface allows customers to request a service call, pay invoices or sign up for "Comfort Club"

BUCHANAN, MICHIGAN, USA, June 8, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Buchanan, MI – All Pro Services, Inc. today announced the launch of an all new corporate website featuring an improved online interface that will allow their customers to schedule a plumbing or HVAC related service call, and provide key details on the service needed, quickly and easily using a secure, online form. The new site is now available at www.YourAllProServices.com.

Company principals, Bill and Leslie Roundy said, "We know our customers lead busy lives, and we're excited to give them an even more convenient way to request a service call, or sign up for one of our Comfort Club packages." The company website explains Comfort Club as a program that combines the convenience of scheduled annual inspections with extra savings on repairs when unexpected plumbing, heating or air conditioning emergencies occur.

Ms. Roundy continued, "We worked closely with our website developers at Precept Partners to make the new site an information resource that will allow us to better serve our customers for years to come. And Precept made sure our customers are able to use our new site on a regular computer, tablet or smartphone, with equal effectiveness."

The company's website developers engineered the new site to highlight Buchanan, Niles, Three Oaks, Dowagiac, Berrien Springs, New Buffalo, Bridgman, Sawyer, St. Joseph, Cassopolis, South Bend, Mishawaka, Granger and La Porte as the primary service areas.
