

Swiss Artist Simone Monney exhibits her colorful artworks in Basel

BASEL, SWITZERLAND, June 12, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Simone Monney creates large-scale, gestural paintings that are built up through layers of Indian ink, acrylic paint and sprays on canvas overlaid with collage of Japanese rice paper.

Self-taught, she enjoys endlessly exploring a given theme either via techniques generated by her creative imagination or through logical thought. The energetic movements and vibrant colors characterize her paintings. The saying that "abstract artists draw their inspiration from the cosmos's innermost maze" rings true for her.

Her paintings figure in many private collections worldwide.

The "vartian carpet company", uses her designs for their carpet collection 2016, which are sold worldwide.

GZ gallery from Barcelona exhibits her work in "Haupt-Ort für Gestaltung" at Holbeinstrasse 58, Basel during 15th - 19th June.
