Pegasus proudly announces that it will be carrying the newest Walt Disney World message throughout the four corners of Florida.

The "Awaken Summer" campaign summarizes the new attractions that are being launched this summer in the four major theme parks and the complex.

There are four wrapped buses that will begin circulation as of today, transformed in a big, stunning travelling outdoor display.

"We are so proud of having the honor to carry the message of "Awaken Summer", not only to our clients, but also to spread the news and awaken the curiosity of our community at large. The art is beautiful and with WIFI available in every Pegasus, our passengers can immediately connect to find out even more information about the latest Disney news." commented Claudia Menezes, Vice President and CMO of Pegasus.

We are so proud of having the honor to carry the message of "Awaken Summer", not only to our clients, but also to spread the news and awaken the curiosity of our community at large.

The art reflects some of the new experiences available in the four major Disney theme parks like: the new evening activities of Disney's Animal Kingdom Theme Park ; exclusive experiences for Star Wars fans at Disney's Hollywood Studios; the eagerly awaited "Frozen Ever After" no Epcot; and the new "Mickey's Royal Friendship Faire" show at Magic Kingdom.

Lots of revelations will be accompanying the buses that will be sure to awaken the magic in each Pegasus passenger and group. Several surprises will be taking place for the Brazilian and South American groups that are soon to invade Orlando in the next few months. Pre-selected groups will have special drawings and gifts distributed among its passengers on board the “Awaken Summer” bus.

“When there is magic in the air, anything can become reality. We are all eager for the awakening of Summer Groups” completed Claudia Menezes.
