

Matt Werth Tapped to Lead Quadex Repair Systems Division

QRS brands include Pipe Robo Tec® Internal Pipe Seals and Interfit® Lateral Connection Seals

HOUSTON, TEXAS, USA, June 21, 2016

/EINPresswire.com/ -- QUADEX REPAIR SYSTEMS (QRS), a division of Quadex, LLC, a leader in rehabilitation and structural renewal products, today announced the promotion of Matthew Werth to National Sales & Marketing Manager. He will have the primary responsibility to increase sales, expand the rep network and to oversee installation and service support. QRS products, which include Pipe-Robo-Tec internal pipe seals and Interfit lateral connection seals, are proven and cost-effective solutions that provide a permanent point repair to leaking pipes and laterals caused by corrosion, cracks, and offset joints.

“The market is demanding these types of products and Matt’s prior industry experience and sales skills will help us accelerate this division’s growth,” said Neil Wisener, President Quadex, LLC. Mr. Werth was previously in Business Development for Vortex Infrastructure Products, where he was instrumental in promoting and selling the benefits of trenchless pipe and manhole repair solutions over traditional repair methods.

Prior to Vortex, Mr. Werth held several management positions, ranging from regional business development to General Manager for a leading trenchless infrastructure contractor. Mr. Werth studied at the University of North Florida where he earned a Bachelor of Arts in Finance with a concentration in Investments.

Mr. Werth will run Quadex Repair Systems Division

The market is demanding better pipe and lateral sealing solutions and Matt’s prior industry experience and sales skills will help us accelerate this division’s growth.
