

Infonova recognised as Top Styrian Exporter at 12th Styrian Export Day

INFONOVA GmbH was recently announced as the winner of the Styrian Export Prize 2016, taking out the top accolade in the category of Trade & Services.

GRAZ, STYRIA, AUSTRIA, June 22, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Graz, Austria – June 2016 – INFONOVA GmbH was recently announced as the winner of the Styrian Export Prize 2016, taking out the top accolade over contender, Saubermacher, in the category of Trade & Services.

The award, presented by the Austrian Chamber of Commerce on the 14th of June, recognises Styrian businesses who are making an exceptional contribution to the state's economy through export. With one of every two euros in Styria currently earned abroad, the support of local businesses plays an important role in Austria.

This win not only underlines the importance of Infonova in the local and greater economies, it also supports the conjecture that technology and expertise is growing to be one of the most important exports in the changing, digital world.

The Infonova logo is displayed in a large, bold, red sans-serif font.

Infonova, with its Infonova R6 platform, is recognised as an international player in the OSS/BSS systems market and for Digital Ecosystem Management. Delivering these concepts together with parent company, BearingPoint, Infonova is already supporting and contributing to some of the most important topics in business models of the future. This position is confirmed not only by customers but also by leading analysts (Gartner, Frost | Sullivan, Ovum, Yankee Group, Analysis Mason).

As an innovative player in the market, Infonova has established itself a strong network of global system integrators to support international sales as well as on-the-ground project implementations. With office locations in Graz and Vienna and 406 employees worldwide, Infonova exports to markets including Australia, Africa, UK, Ireland and Switzerland, with 2015 worldwide sales reaching 40 million.

Thomas Kutschi, VP Alliances, who received the award on behalf of Infonova, says: "It is with great pleasure and honour that I accept this award as recognition of Infonova as a company that is growing and contributing to the digitization of important industries and enabling a digital lifestyle for consumers in many countries. Significantly, this award is a strong reflection on our employees and the hard work, innovation, creativity and dedication they put into every day."
