KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, UNITED STATES, June 22, 2016

/EINPresswire.com/ -- 3M, a global innovation company that manufactures energy-efficient window film, has recently recognized KC Window Film with two outstanding awards.

3M awarded KC Window Film as a growing leader in the Window Film industry in the Kansas City area. They received this recognition for their quality work and growing sales in the residential and commercial market.

They have also been awarded recognition as the only Platinum Large Commercial Certified Company in a four-state region. They received this certification based on their work with large commercial projects.

Some of the benefits of window film include reducing glare, cooling and heating loads, and lowering utility and graffiti expenses.

"The KC Window Film team is excited to receive this recognition. We believe it's important to solve challenging aspects of energy use in a building. Our window film saves energy, improves tenant comfort, and adds safety while delivering the utmost in commercial and aesthetic appeal."
