

Me 'n Mommy To Be Celebrates Anniversary

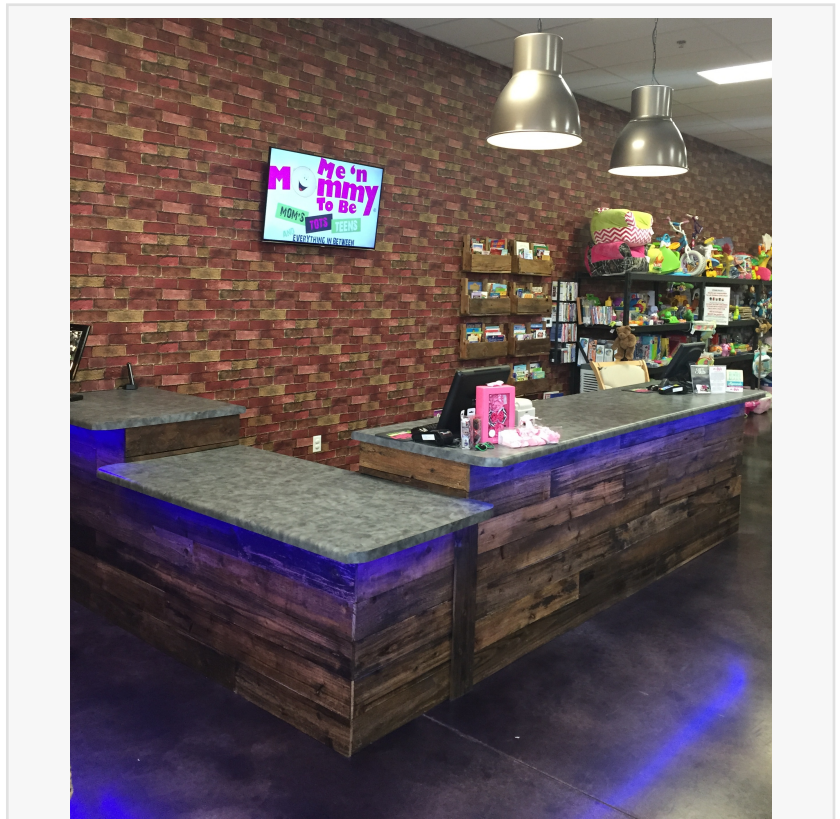

Me 'n Mommy To Be celebrates this month their one year anniversary of their newest added store

LAS VEGAS , NEVADA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, June 28, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Me 'n Mommy To Be is celebrating their 1 year anniversary of their newest store location, Me 'n Mommy To Be Las Vegas. Located at 4960 South Fort Apache Road in Las Vegas just off the 215 at Tropicana. As a leader in the consignment resale business they carry everything for newborns through tweens and even maternity. Their items have prices lower than the standard prices at the mall and are up to 70% off normal retail. "Each store is well organized, clean and easy to shop. You won't know your even shopping resale", says Nettie Byerly owner of Me 'n Mommy To Be.

Nettie started with her first store in Ankeny, Iowa a suburb of Des Moines in 2004 and has been growing ever since. "We have a passion to provide great brand name resale items for kids and moms-to-be while providing an environment for shopping unlike any other resale store. We sell everything children and maternity-related, including clothes, shoes, books, nursery furniture, toys, and baby equipment. Our items are gently used pre-loved goods that are in great condition and have passed the current safety standards. Thousands of new items hit each of our sales floors every week all clean and ready to use."

Me 'n Mommy To Be's standard and what they believe in is world class customer service for every customer, every time and have been providing that in the mid-west for over 12 years now and now they have brought that same concept to the Las Vegas Valley. Over the years they have parents tell them how they have saved thousands of dollars on their shopping needs by shopping at Me 'n Mommy To Be. These practices sets them apart from other consignment and resale stores in the industry.

The best part for parents is that they can actually make money by using this store as well. They pay cash right on the spot for children and maternity items that you no longer need or want. No need to try to sell it on your own in an unsafe, unreliable forum, you can just bring clothing, shoes, toys, books, equipment and furniture in and they pay you cash or give store credit depending on your needs.
