MASPETH, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 30, 2016

/EINPresswire.com/ -- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: CEO, Artist, Performer, and Speaker ToniAnn Carriere is perhaps best-known for her television appearances, which include reality TV series Restaurant Stakeout in June 2014, and crime drama The Glades in 2013.

Now, with a wonderfully uplifting blog detailing her passions, thoughts, feelings, and experiences, ToniAnn hopes to inspire her readers to embrace life and pursue their own personal dreams.

ToniAnn Carriere has her own website offering unique fine art prints, designed by ToniAnn herself, and also features her own personal blog. So far in her blog, ToniAnn has touched on her passion for paleo foods and recipes, her life experiences, thoughts and feelings, and her own personal battles. The website includes thought-provoking and deeply touching quotes on mental illness, love, and life, which come straight from the heart and reach out to the reader.

ToniAnn's art designs can be purchased in various sizes on high-quality canvas. The stunningly forceful prints are printed by hand and each design will initially be available on the website for a limited time only. By using fade resistant UV archival ink and a UV filter on waterproof canvas, the prints are protected from fading and will make quite an impact on any home or office wall space. A high-gloss jigsaw puzzle, difficulty level medium to hard, showcases the vivid colors of ToniAnn's designs.

The website at toniannc.com has a collection of other quality items, including ToniAnn Carriere's own line. A handy cosmetic bag, designed for storing makeup and skincare essentials, is available in two different sizes and can be customized with any name too. To coordinate, a compact mirror with two interior glass mirrors is available. A beautiful three-inch pewter snowflake can be customized or bought branded and the delicate ornament can be hung around the holiday season. Fashion accessories include a two-colour Impulse tote bag made from 100% high-quality cotton canvas, a stylish aluminium rectangle dog-tag which hangs on an aluminium ball chain, and men's and women's stainless steel and sport ceramic wrist watches. Not to leave the younger ones out, toniannc.com has watches designed especially for children, with a watch face that can be customized with the child's name or bought as ToniAnn's Line.
