

Fran Briggs Releases The Best of Summer Reading, 2016

List features dynamically versed authors who are at the forefront in their genre

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, July 5, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- What are two of America's most under-appreciated treasures? Great books, and the authors who write them. Award-winning publicist, Fran Briggs has recognized 15 books considered to be among 'The Best of Summer Reading, 2016.' Genres from the annual list include fiction, non-fiction, mystery, romance, children's literature, spiritual, adventure, urban literature and sci-fi.

The Best of Summer Reading, 2016

"This is not a compilation of 'greatest reads,' but rather authors who are dynamically versed and at the forefront in their genre," stated Briggs. "The books showcase each author's literary vision through subject, originality, creativity, impact, and influence," she concluded.

The listing is organized by title, publisher, author, synopsis, and a link to additional information and purchase. The numerical order does not coincide with ranking.
