

International Announcer Mike Markham To Work Rio Olympics

World Class Announcer Steps Into Olympic Arena

RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL, July 6, 2016

/EINPresswire.com/ -- World Class Sport

Presentation/Public Address Announcer Mike Markham has been selected to work group play of the women's basketball competition at the upcoming Rio Olympic Games.

"The Olympics is quite simply the biggest and most prestigious event on the planet. Athletes from all corners of the globe work and dream their entire lives to make it there and be among the best on the planet at what they do. Being a part of it all will be a tremendous experience and being selected to announce in Rio is a beautiful honor," said Markham.

Markham has announced sporting events around the world over the past 14 years as his voice has echoed through venues from London to Los Angeles and in many points beyond and between. Markham has worked as a live announcer for over 60 organizations covering a myriad of sports and a plethora of competitions.

The 2016 Rio Olympic Games officially begin on August 5th.
