

Harris and UWS Celebrate 10th Anniversary with $640K in Scholarships

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, July 12, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Harris and UWS Celebrate 10th Anniversary with $640K in Scholarships

Harris Institute and the University of the West of Scotland (UWS) are celebrating the 10th anniversary of their partnership with ten $64K(CAD) scholarships to earn two Diplomas and a Master's Degree in Canada, Scotland and England in less than 3 years.

Over the last decade Harris and UWS have pioneered accelerated post secondary education. Two hundred and forty-four students have benefitted from advanced academic credentials, senior faculty exchanges, international work placements and artist tours managed by students.

“Our unique partnership has enabled students from Canada and the UK to have unprecedented educational experiences”, says John Harris, Harris Institute’s founder. “These scholarships will allow individuals from around the world to benefit from a one-of-a-kind academic opportunity”.

Ten students will each receive full scholarships to earn Audio Production Program (APP) and Arts Management Program (AMP) Diplomas in 20 months at Harris Institute in Toronto, Canada and a Master’s Degree in Sound Production, Songwriting or Music Industries in 12 months at the University of the West of Scotland in Glasgow/Ayr and their new campus in London, England.
