

Emerging Leader in High Quality Bandana Bibs and Other Baby Accessories Earns 150th Five-Star Review

ikkletots Earns High Praise from Moms of Babies and Toddlers Based on Stellar Reputation and High Quality Products

SYLMAR, CALIFORNIA, USA, July 13, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NEW YORK, N.Y. – Ikkletots, an emerging leader in baby accessories, announced today that the company has earned its 150th five-star review on Amazon.com for its bandana bibs for babies and toddlers. The versatile and unisex bibs have quickly gained popularity among moms who value baby products that are both practical and stylish. The bibs have also become a popular choice for baby shower gifts.

Ikkletots' bandana bibs feature unique designs and colors that coordinate and match most outfits. Constructed to offer good coverage around the neck and chest, the bibs are especially effective for protecting babies from rashes reflux, dribble and excessive drool. The bibs are waterproof, adjustable and machine washable.

"I can't really find a reason to dislike these if I tried," said an Ikkletots customer that gave the company a five-star review. "I definitely would purchase these as a gift for a friend or family member as a new parent or buy again."

Ikkletots' bandana bibs retail for $14.99 and are eligible for expedited shipping, gift-wrap and the Amazon Prime program. All purchases are backed by a money back guarantee.

"At first I thought $14.99 was kind of spendy but there's a handful of reasons I prefer these over the ones I can buy at the dollar store," said another recent Ikkletots customer.

More information, including product photos and specifications, is available on the Amazon product page.
