

VAT training is coming to your city

VAT is on its way to the GCC - will you be ready when it arrives?

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, July 19, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- It is no longer a secret, nor is there any doubt: VAT will arrive in the GCC from 1 January 2018. As a result, tax experts are urging businesses to take action now in order to be ready by the go live date.

REGIONAL TRAINING SERIES

If you are thinking 'we have outsourced this' or 'we are already working with our consultants' the bottom line is that VAT is now the responsibility of the whole business. So how will you prepare?

Following on from the strong demand for the GCC VAT Forum, we are pleased to bring you the GCC VAT Training Series – a one-day training programme designed to give your team the grounding they need for VAT and to create awareness of its implications across your business. Hear from expert trainers from KPMG Lower Gulf and Thomson Reuters.

“

It is widely expected that the regulations around VAT, at least in principle, will be known by the third quarter of 2016.
