

New Ikkletots Bandana Bibs Designed for Toddlers up to 36 Months

Emerging Leader in Baby and Toddler Accessories Debuts High Quality Bandana Bib Collection Featuring Unique Designs and Colors

SYLMAR, CALIFORNIA, USA, July 20, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NEW YORK – Ikkletots, an emerging leader in baby and toddler accessories, announced today that its new bandana bib collection now fits toddlers up to 36 months. The company is committed to creating versatile products that transition with growing babies. The new bandana bibs feature two sets of snaps, enabling moms and caregivers to adjust the bibs for both comfort and the desired size.

“The double snaps are great to change the size and keep it secure,” said Ty Harper, an Ikkletots customer who purchased the bibs on Amazon.com and gave the product a five-star review. “They are strong so the bib will stay in place.”

Harper also noted in her review that because of the soft fabric, cute design, stitching, absorbency, thickness and waterproof fabric, she wished that she could give the bandana bibs six stars instead of five.

Ikkletots bandana bibs are designed to keep babies and toddlers dry around the clock. The bibs provide extensive coverage around the neck and front to provide protection from rashes reflux, dribble, drool and food spills.

The high quality bibs, which are often described as drooling scarves, feature a unique and stylish design ideal for both boys and girls. The bibs are available in four color combinations featuring black, white, grey and yellow and coordinate with most children's outfits.

To ensure safety, Ikkletots bandana bibs contain no dangerous chemicals, such as nickel, lead, BPA or phthalates. The bandana bibs are machine washable, and are backed by a 100 percent money back guarantee.

Ikkletots bandana bibs currently retail for $14.99 and are available on Amazon.com. More information, including product photos and specifications, is available on the product page. All purchases are eligible for the Amazon Prime program, as well as expedited shipping and gift-wrap.
