

Protective Security Experts From The US, Mexico, Germany and Middle East Combine Forces

Security Experts Create A Unique Partnership To Protect Government Officials, Diplomats, High Profile Individuals, VIPs and Celebrities Around The World

SHERMAN OAKS , CALIFORNIA, USA, July 20, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LOS ANGELES - June 13, 2016 - PRLLog -- The CEOs of RyPul Threat Assessments, 245 Tactical and Project 7 Security Group, each physical security and threat assessments experts from around the world, have created a unique partnership to protect Government Officials, Diplomats, High Profile Individuals, VIPs and Celebrities around the world 24 hours a day. Warren Pulley, the owner of RyPul Threat Assessments, stated that "While each company individually specializes in a form of high threat protection, each CEO after months of consultation agreed that by joining forces and resources we could leverage our combined unparalleled knowledge of high threat protective services and provide global reach to each of our targeted client bases by having in place the world's best trained protective security force available anywhere in the world at a moment's notice."

RyPul Threat Assessment specializes in providing Worldwide Protective Services and Training for Host Country security forces or Embedded Training Personnel, 245 Tactical provides expert Combative Training and Protective Security Services throughout Central and South America, while Project 7 Security Group currently protects some of the world's top pop culture icons as they travel the globe. Each company brings the best and brightest worldwide certified protection specialists into this combined effort, which allows for specialized teams of highly skilled and trained professionals to put together protective details and training cadre capable of operating and working anywhere in the world from a war zone to a first world permissive environment without the need to contract with outside sources for specialized services.

This partnership will also offer specialized services such as conducting Commercial Building Protective Site Surveys, School Threat Assessments, Residential Security Planning, Personal Protection Profiles and Assessments, Site Security Planning, Asset Tagging and Tracking as well as providing physical Risk Mitigation Options.
