

CD Publications Helps Support Foundation Funding for Native American Issues

CD Publications, a publishing company since 1961, caters to the information and expertise needs of U.S. nonprofit and charitable organizations.

DURHAM, NC, USA, July 22, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CD Publications' Native American Report (NAR), a monthly newsletter, brings latest news and updates on regulatory and legislative developments from around the country on tribal and Native American issues. NAR's Washington DC reporting staff is credentialed by the Congress to cover exclusive and insider events that are not accessible to the normal public. Subscribers gain the benefit of exclusive insights, insider information, breaking news, comprehensive coverage and unbiased reporting on unfolding issues. CD Publication also provides thorough coverage in other areas such as health, education and social services and programs affecting seniors, youth, children, and families.

Native American Report is a monthly newsletter that provides detailed coverage and updates in areas and from sources such as:

- Bureau of Indian Affairs
- Federal/state/tribal taxation
- HUD, BIA and EPA regulations
- Trends in Native American law
- The impact of new legal rulings
- Sovereignty/Jurisdiction
- Tribal/state gaming disputes

Native American Report also promises to cover news, updates and reforms around the country on local efforts to improve access to health, education, unemployment and other efforts related to the development of the Native American population. The newsletter is available in electronic and print version and offers annual subscription at $299. According to CD Publications, Native American Report has an average monthly subscription of 10,000. For more information visit:
