

Fun-filled, educational lessons to be released by Massachusetts author

Author Bonnie Baker partnered with Tate Publishing to kick-start the publication process of her new juvenile fiction, "Babies in Heaven: Lesson 1 ~ Sharing."

LUNENBURG, MASS., UNITED STATES, July 23, 2016

/EINPresswire.com/ -- LUNENBURG, Mass. – Author Bonnie Baker recently partnered with Tate Publishing to kick-start the publication process of her new juvenile fiction, "Babies in Heaven: Lesson 1 ~ Sharing."

A story of fun and exciting lessons, "Babies in Heaven" is a dreamy children's book about the children in heaven waiting for their turn to cross the rainbow bridge and begin their lives on earth.

"The book has been in the making for over 20 years. My inspiration was my children. When they were small, I wanted to teach them the importance of things like sharing, lesson 1 in the series, and saying please and thank you, Lesson 2 in the series. The stories evolved from that. Over the years, I have created individual stories for friends and family when they were going through a life event to help see things through a different perspective," shares Baker when asked about the inspiration behind her book.

Richard Tate, co-owner and Acquisitions Editor, Tate Publishing

"The cartoon of the story shares no violence or monsters, just children having fun while they learn," states Richard Tate, co-owner and Acquisitions Editor for Tate Publishing.

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book is available through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Baker was inspired to write the book while telling her children bedtime stories. She has two children and a wonderful granddaughter who inspires her daily with new ideas. Over the years, she has written individual stories for family and friends. Her dream was to one day have the stories published. Her dream has come true.
