Born in Paradise is a 7 track EP written and recorded in New Orleans, LA. Born in Paradise is about viewing the world as paradise and treating it as such. It is intended to bring awareness to environmental issues which are already affecting New Orleans and the planet as a whole.

The first single off of Born in Paradise,

“Moon Influences Man”, was released in January, 2016. It features Jazz saxophonist Rêverend Yogi leaving his mark over David’s soulful Hip-Hop production and culminates in a futuristic duet between melancholic piano and a watery synthesizer. David and Rêverend Yogi recently performed Moon Influences Man on Balcony TV New Orleans. David’s video peaked at #1 on Balcony TV New Orleans' charts. Born in Paradise will be available on all major digital platforms worldwide.

“To be born in paradise is to believe that you were born in paradise; paradise is a mindset. I urge you to think and act positively in spite of all the tragedies that we see happening to our planet and its inhabitants. The goal of this music is to simultaneously spread good vibrations and bring awareness back to caring for our Earth.”
