The complimentary blend of massage therapy and advances in nutrition create a pathway to optimal health.

Atlantic City, NJ – AUG 8, 2016 –

VitaMist is proud to have been named the Product of the Year for 2016 by the World Massage Festival and Massage Therapy Hall of Fame. VitaMist, a leading distributor of spray vitamin supplements and diet support products, announced today that it has been named the 2016 Product of the year. Company president William Deihl was in Atlantic City to accept the award, and to speak with those attending about the positive benefits of diet support. The highly complementary combination of massage therapy and nutritional supplementation work in concert to improve health and support the body's regular functions. Through a whole body view of health maintenance, addressing diet, nutrition exercise and rehabilitation we are better able to support our customers, promote good habits and prevent health issues.

The World Massage Festival's mission is, "To honor those who built the bridges for our profession, to educate the general public about massage, to educate therapists about different types of massage and to have fun." In 2006, The World Massage Festival was established to recognize individuals and company's within the massage therapy industry and related fields who advance the massage profession. It is an annual event that travels around the country with the help of founders, Mike Hinkle & Cindy Michaels, and a group of volunteers who support their mission. Their ultimate goal is to provide all therapists with an opportunity to study with the leaders of the massage industry at a
