

Gartex 2016, A 3 day Exhibition on Complete Garment Manufacturing Technology

The debut show on garment manufacturing solutions will offer the much-needed serious business platform for manufacturers and buyers of the industry.

NEW DELHI, DELHI, INDIA, August 16, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gartex makes its much-awaited debut this year with more than 100 exhibitors lined-up to participate in the 3-day show from 27th-29th August at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi.

Occupying 6,000 sqm of exhibition area, Gartex will display and promote new technology and state-of-the-art equipment, materials and services in hopes to accelerate technological advances in the Indian textile & garment industry.

The comprehensive tradeshow will incorporate 3 distinct sections: Digitex, Fashion 'Fabs' Show and Trims Expo, which will each focus on distinct product categories for easy sourcing and enquiries. This includes products and services related to garment & textile machinery, digital textile printers, embroidery equipment, testing equipment & controls, special inks & dyes, embellishments, assortment of fabrics and allied services.

Gartex 2016 will provide a unique platform for national & international suppliers and trade visitors to expand their business opportunities in the garment and textile industry in India; the show will witness new product launches and live demos of equipment & techniques by some of the biggest manufacturers in the industry.

Gartex is the only show where you can source complete garment manufacturing solutions from companies Pan India under one roof, thereby making it a definitive gateway into the garment and textile industry of India.
