

Investigation into the human being crime intention.

Why human beings commit transgressions of all kind? Never in the history had been written such a book, at least as far as I know. We talk about crime intention!

SOLOTVINO, ZAKARPATIA, UKRAINE, August 19, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- I was born in September of 1972, and supposed to lead a quiet life. Then later, while studied in a university (economics, marketing) I suddenly realized that it could not be this way, it was like a kind of energy that push me to have more risky life style. Which I liked. Therefore, I choose another way: smart, quick and easy money, monetary crimes, etc.

One day, in October of 2005, I got to the prison for another kind of crime: a kidnaping of a known (supposed) drug dealer in the coast of crime in Spain (Costa del Sol). Though arrested by coincidence. My then girlfriend denounced me to police, even if she realized her mistake later. It was not her real intention and she was very sorry, but it was too late. Two years later, I was sentenced to 24 years of prison. The man I kidnaped was too powerful, and he proved it when got me behind the bars for such a long term.

From the very beginning of my convict, I asked myself: why did I do it? Why human beings commit transgressions of all kind? Then I started to look after answers. Philosophy, psychology, history, archeology and not in the last classic literature. Started with Diogenes and Plato, and finished with modern philosophers and thinkers, never ignoring the Bible of course. I admired Dostoyevsky and Nietzsche, and specially admired Albert Camus and his work

"The Rebel". I've been looking for answers for all my questions, and finally got it. Therefore, this book is a result of all this work: thousands days spent in prisons reading rooms. Finally, it is possible to answer to this question: what push human beings to commit all kind of offenses. In this sense, this book is unique. It looks weird but never in the history had people written such a book, at least as far as I know. Less of all this kind of book was written from the prison: so supposed capital of the immorality. And then after

We cannot save the world, but we can stop the human been crime intention! Viorel lost 10 years to get it.

thousands of years, we still look at the effects without analyzing the causes. We see daily on the television and internet that people have such an ambition that they don't mind to destroy other peoples life if it's "necessary". They are constantly corrupted by power and money. They destroy the earth simply because they can't stop earning money. Our crime intention is present even when we admit our generals to attack other nations, knowing that it's all about money. Moral felony is present when we do something in our own interest knowing that it will bring that person to lose something, even if it's legal. Today the law is not such a big problem for those who want to make money in an illicit way, especially when they pay an army of lawyers.

So this is the work that I need your help for. It is not necessary to specify that in the world of new writers, when nobody knows you, it is difficult to appear on a library. Publishers prefer sure investment, and even doesn't read your work, particularly when it goes about such a sensible things like crimes. Especially in Spain, where there are thousands of new writers annually. Therefore, the help I hope to collect will go to publicity, and if it will remain something: to translate it to English, and thus spread it all over the world, if it's possible. And just could be possible with your help, because the truth was never popular. Look what happened to Socrates, Confucius and especially to Jesus of Nazareth. Not to specify that all of them have been considered crazy in their time, though in this case we have to add Lao Tzu, Democrates, Diogenes and a large list of other thinkers. In no case I compare myself with those people, though my intention to find out the truth it's equal. ampaign link: <https://www.indiegogo.com/projects/investigation-into-the-human-being-crime-intention-books>
